OMAHA, NEBRASKA

Friday May 13

10:00 to 12:30	Lauritzen Gardens
12:45 to 1:45	Lunch at the Café at Lauritzen Gardens
2:00 to 4:00	Corky Canvas

The day will begin with an escape to an urban oasis of beauty and tranquility at Lauritzen Gardens, Omaha's Botanical Center. At 10:30, you will take a 55-minute narrated tram tour through the 100 acres of the gardens. The tour stops twice for 10 minutes to stretch your legs. The remainder of the morning will be free time for you to explore your favorite garden space or the Marjorie K. Daugherty Conservatory where you can experience the wonder and amazement of gardens under glass - from tropical gardens with soaring palms to temperate gardens with moss-covered oak trees and blooming azaleas. You may also want to explore the Visitor and Education Center where you will find a 5,000-square-foot floral display hall and the gift shop.

Also located in the Visitor Center is the cozy Conagra Café that overlooks the glorious floral display hall where you will enjoy lunch in the Community Room. The Café features freshly prepared sandwiches, soups, salads, and desserts. You may peruse the menu here.

After lunch we will be off to Corky Canvas where you're sure to uncork your creativity! With a glass of wine (or a soft drink) in one hand, and a paintbrush in the other, you will create your own masterpiece. Corky's instructors lead you step-by-step as you create a Board or two picked from their many designs. At the end of the afternoon, you will have your very own piece of art to take home and hang on your wall. Corky Canvas provides everything you will need and there is no artistic ability required!

We hope that you will join us for a fun and relaxing day in Omaha!
